

For Immediate Release:

Business Lending Partners Exhibits at Annual WEDA Conference

Sturtevant, Wisconsin – March 4, 2010 - This February, Business Lending Partners exhibited at the 2010 Annual Governor's Conference held by the Wisconsin Economic Development Association (WEDA). This year's conference focused on "Finding Success in an Evolving Economy: Getting Wisconsin Back in the Race" and included several notable speakers such as Lt. Governor Barbara Lawton.

The 2010 WEDA conference gave Business Lending Partners (BLP) the opportunity to successfully promote its organization as a statewide lender offering Small Business Administration (SBA) 504 Loans; BLP has been a certified SBA 504 lender since 1985 in addition to being a Revolving Loan Fund (RLF) administrator. Business Lending Partners also offers lenders and business groups, individual and customized presentations offering finance option information on the SBA 504 program and how to access this.

The Wisconsin Economic Development Association (WEDA) is a statewide, non-profit organization dedicated to expanding the economy of the state of Wisconsin. WEDA membership benefits include professional development/continuing education opportunities, legislative affairs and resources and networking.

For more information on Business Lending Partners and the services they offer, please contact: Carolyn Engel by email at cengel@businesslendingpartners.org or by visiting the Business Lending Partners' website at www.businesslendingpartners.org.

###